AAP General News (Australia) 03-16-2005 WA: Power utility fined after electrocution deaths of children

A Perth court's fined West Australian electricity utility Western Power $75,000 for failing to maintain equipment which in one case led to the electrocution deaths of two children.

The children, aged seven and eight, died in the far northern town of Wyndham two years ago after touching an aerial attachment on the roof of a house.

They were trying to retrieve a frisbee at the time.
